

A Summer Song

(Written by Chad Stuart, Clive Metcalfe, & Keith Noble. Recorded by Chad & Jeremy 1964.)

(C) Trees (Em) (F)
(G) Swayin' in the (C) summer (Em) breeze (F)
(G) Showin' off their (C) silver (Em) leaves (F)
As (G) we walked (C) by (Em)
Soft (F) (G) kisses on a (C) summer's (Em) day (F)
(G) Laughing all our (C) cares a(Em)way (F)
Just (G) you and (C) I (Em) (F) (G)

(C) Sweet (Em) (F)
(G) Sleepy warmth of (C) summer (Em) nights (F)
(G) Gazing at the (C) distant (Em) lights (F)
In the (G) starry (C) sky (Eb) (F) (C)

(F) They say that (G) all good things must (C) end some(Am)day
(Dm) Autumn (G) leaves must (Am) fall
But (C) don't you know that it (E7) hurts me so
To (Am) say goodbye to (Em) you (Dm)
(Am) Wish you didn't have to (G) go
(Am) No, no, no, (G) no

And when the (C) rain (Em) (F)
(G) Beats against my (C) window (Em) pane (F)
I'll (G) think of summer (C) days a(Em)gain (F)
And (G) dream of (C) you (Em) (F) (C) (C) (Eb) (F) (C)

(chorus)

And when the (C) rain (Em) (F)
(G) Beats against my (C) window (Em) pane (F)
I'll (G) think of summer (C) days a(Em)gain (F)
And (G) dream of (C) you (Em) (F)
And (G) dream of (C) you (Em) (F) (G) (A!)
