Chorus:

```
C
I like liquor and whores, liquor and whores
            Dm
Cigarettes, dope, and mustard, and bologna
F          C
Liquor and whores

C                           Dm
I was down drinking at the legion
              F             G
When I met a girl, she was nice
                    C
She was pretty and pleasing
                                        Dm
She said hey boy, we should do some marrying
           F                    G
And I said sure, but before we do
                   C
There's something you should know
```

Chorus:

```
C                             Dm
Then one night, down at the legion
           F                   G
She walked in, I was drunk on gin
                C
Dancing with a lady friend
                                          Dm
She said hey boy, you should fly the (heck) home
           F                      G
And I said no, cause five little words
                 C
Could I swore I said to you
```
