(Written by Tony Dekker. Recorded by the Great Lakes Swimmers 2012.)

(F)(G)(F)(C)(F)(G)(F)(C)(F)(G)(F)(C)

(F) Easy (G) come, and (F) easy (C) go

That's (F) what they (G) say

When they're a(F)bout to go (C) broke

So (F) try not to (G) choke

(F) Put your arms around me and don't ever let (C) go

Went to (F) see the (G) priest,

he was (F) singing the (C) blues

(F) Glossing in (G) psalms, and (F) spinning the (C) news

(F) Tending the (G) gardens, (F) gathering (C) leaves

(F) Polishing (G) prophets, and (F) running out (C) thieves

(chorus)

(C)(F)(G)(F)(C)(F)(G)(F)(C)

(F) Call it (G) chance, or (F) call it (C) choice

When (F) words es(G)cape,

on the (F) breath of your (C) voice

(F) Spending the (G) magic, (F) as they ar(C)rive

(F) It's not (G) fatal, when it's a (F) shallow (C) dive

(chorus)
