

English Tea (McCartney)

(Written by Paul McCartney. Released 2005.)

(G) Would you care to (D) sit with me
(F) For a cup of (C) English tea
(Cm) Very twee, (G) very me
(A) Any sunny (Dsus4) mor(D)ning
(G) What a pleasure (D) it would be
(F) Chatting so de(C)lightfully
(Cm) Nanny bakes (G) fairy cakes
(A) Every Sunday (Dsus4) mor(D)ning
 (C) Miles and (Am) miles of (D) English (G) garden,
 (C) Stretching (Am) past the (D) willow (G) tree
 (C) Lines of (Am) holly(D)hocks and (G) roses,
 (C) Listen (Am) most at(D)tentively
(G) Do you know the (D) game croquet
(F) Peradventure (C) we might play
(Cm) Very gay, (G) hip hooray
(A) Any sunny (Dsus4) mor(D)ning
 (instrumental – verse chords)
 (chorus)
(G) As a rule the (D) church bells chime
(F) When it's almost (C) supper time
(Cm) Nanny bakes (G) fairy cakes
(A) On a Sunday (Dsus4) mor(D)ning
(G)

