

Enid

(Written by Steven Page & Ed Robertson, recorded by Barenaked Ladies 1992.)

(G)Enid we never (Am)really knew each (Cm)other any(G)way.

(G)Enid we never (Am)really knew each (Cm)other any(F)way.

(F)It took me a (C)year to believe it was (G)over,

(F)And it took me two (C)more to get over the (Bm7)loss (whoa (E7)whoa).

(F)I took a (C)beating when you wrote me those (G)letters,

(F)And every (C)time I remembered the (D)taste of your lip gloss.

(G)Enid we never (Am)really knew each (Cm)other any(G)way.

(G)Enid we never (Am)really knew each (Cm)other any(G)way.

(G)Maybe we always (Am)saw right through each (Cm)other any(G)way but (G)Enid we never (Am)really knew each (Cm)other any(G)way.

(F)There were (C)times when I wanted to (G)hurt you,

(F)and there were (C)times when I know that I (Bm7)did (whoa (E7)whoa).

(F)There were (C)times when I thought I would (G)kill you,

(F)but can you (C)blame me I was only a (D)kid.

(Am)Tell me (D)why we never (G)really (GM7)respected each (Em)other.

(Am)and tell me (D)why I never (G)believed that (GM7)you were a (Em)person too.

(Am)I always (D)thought that you fancied my (G)bro(GM7)ther. (Em)

(Am)I may not have (D)liked it, oh but (G)memo(GM7)ry is a (Em)strange thing,

Oh, and (Am)Enid? (D)Enid I remember you.(G)

(Chorus)

(F)It took me a (C)year to believe it was (G)over,

(F)and it took me two (C)more to get over the (Bm7)loss (whoa (E7)whoa).

(F)I took a (C)beating when I wrote you those (G)letters,

(F)And every (C)time you told me to get (D)lost.

(Am)Now it's not (D)fair to say that it's

'cause (G)I was (GM7)three inches (Em)shorter then,

(Am)And it's not (D)fair to say that it's

'cause (G)I was only (GM7)fifteen years (Em)old.

(Am)But maybe it's (D)fair to say it was a (G)lack of com(GM7)muni(Em)cation,

(Am)I took a phone (D)message, oh and (G)speaking of (GM7)communi(Em)cation;

Oh, and (Am)Enid, (D)Enid you caught a cold.(G)

(G)I can get a job I can (Am)pay the phone bills

I can (Cm)cut the lawn, cut my hair, (G)cut off my cholesterol

(G)I can work overtime (Am)I can work in a mine (Cm)I can do it all for you,

(G) (tacet) But I don't want to.

(Chorus)

(G)Enid we never (Am)really knew each (Cm)other any(G)way. (repeat)
