

Grandpa Was A Carpenter

(Written and recorded by John Prine, 1973.)

(C)(G)(D)(G)

(G) Grandpa wore his suit to dinner nearly every (C) day

No particular (G) reason he just dressed that (D) way

(G) Brown necktie and a matching vest and both his wingtip (C) shoes

He built a closet on (G) our back porch and put a (D) penny in a burned out (G) fuse.

(C) Grandpa was a carpenter he built houses stores and (G) banks

(C) Chain smoked Camel (G) cigarettes and hammered nails in (D) planks

He was (G) level on the level and shaved even every (C) door

And voted for Eisen(G)hower 'cause (D) Lincoln won the (G) war.

(C)(G)(D)(G)(C)(G)(D)(G)

(G) Well, he used to sing me “Blood on the Saddle”

and rock me on his (C) knee

And let me listen to (G) radio before we got T(D)V

Well, he'd (G) drive to church on Sunday and take me with him (C) too

Stained glass in every (G) window, hearing (D) aids in every (G) pew.

(chorus)

(C)(G)(D)(G)(C)(G)(D)(G)

(G) Now my grandma was a teacher went to school in Bowling (C) Green

Traded in a (G) milking cow for a Singer sewing ma(D)chine

She (G) called her husband “Mister” and walked real tall and (C) pride

And used to buy me (G) comic books (D) after grandpa (G) died.

(chorus)

(G)(C)(G)(D)(G)(C)(G)(D)(G)

(chorus)

And (C) voted for Eisen(G)hower 'cause (D) Lincoln won the (G) war.
