

I'm So Bored With The U.S.A.

(Written by Joe Strummer and Mick Jones. Recorded by the Clash, 1977.)

(E) Yankee soldier he wanna shoot some skag
He (A) met it in Cambodia but (E) now he can't afford a bag
(E) Yankee dollar talk to the dictators of the world
In (A) fact it's giving orders an' they (E) can't afford to miss a word
    (C) I'm so bored with the (A) U S A
    (C) I'm so bored with the (A) U S A
    But what can I (E) do?

(E) Yankee detectives are always on the TV
'Cos (A) killers in America work (E) seven days a week
(E) Never mind the stars and stripes let's print the Watergate Tapes
(A) I'll salute the New Wave and I (E) hope nobody escapes
    (C) I'm so bored with the (A) U S A
    (C) I'm so bored with the (A) U S A
    But what can I (E) do?

(C) I'm so bored with the (A) U S A
    (C) I'm so bored with the (A) U S A
    But what can I (E) do?

(C) I'm so bored with the (A) U S A
    (C) I'm so bored with the (A) U S A
    (C) I'm so bored with the (A) U S A
    But what can I (E) do?
