

JuJu Man

(Written by Jim Ford and Lolly Vegas. Recorded by Brinsley Schwarz, 1972, and Dave Edmunds, 1977.)

(C) I was just sixteen years old,
And Maggie's hair was black as coal.
Lord I (F) felt this heart of mine go slipping a(C)way.
Now, her eyes were bright as the stars up above
(Am) And every word Maggie spoke was love.
And I (F) felt this heart of (G) mine go slipping a(C)way. (F)

(C) Falling in (F) love a(C)gain,
(C) Falling in (F) love a(C)gain.
(C) We don't care if we (G) don't ever do
(F) Fall back out a(C)gain! (Bb)(F)

(C) Time grew on and my love got stronger.
Me and Maggie couldn't wait a day longer.
We (F) had to go to town right away to see the Ju Ju (C) Man.
I said, "Please please tell me, Mr. Ju Ju Man,
(Am) Read the cards that you've got in your hand.
(F) You've got to make a plan there for (G) me and my Maggie (C) love." (F)

(instrumental – verse chords)

(chorus)

(C) Now Maggie's Mama, she'd like to hang me.
Maggie's Papa, now, I know he'd like to chain me,
Cause he (F) don't understand a single word of what lay a(C)head.
I said, "Please, Mr. Ju Ju Man,
(Am) Will I be holding my sweet Maggie's hand
When the (F) robin sings again, once (G) more in the Spring, next (C) year. (F)

(chorus x2)

(C) Fallin', fallin', (F) fallin' in (C) love, fallin' in (F) love a(C)gain.
(C) Fallin', fallin', (F) fallin' in (C) love, fallin' in (F) love a(C)gain.

(repeat and fade)
