

Ramblin' Man

(Written by Dickey Betts, recorded by The Allman Brothers Band, 1972.)

(G) Lord, I was (F) born a ramblin' (G) man
(G) Tryin' to make a livin' and (C) doin' the best I (D) can
And (C) when it's time for (G) leavin', I (Em) hope you'll under(C)stand
(G) That I was (D) born a ramblin' (G) man

(G) Well my father was a (F) gambler down in (G) Georgia
And he (G) wound up on the (C) wrong end of (D) gun
And (C) I was born in the (G) back seat of a (Em) Greyhound (C) bus
(G) Rollin' down (D) Highway Forty (G) One

(chorus)

I'm (G) on my way to (F) New Orleans this (G) mornin'
(G) Leaving out of (C) Nashville, Tennes(D)see
They're (C) always having a (G) good time down on the (Em) bayou, (C) Lord
And (G) Delta women (D) think the world of (G) me

(chorus)

(G) Lord, I was (F) born a ramblin' (G) man
(G) Lord, I was (F) born a ramblin' (G) man
(G) Lord, I was (F) born a ramblin' (G) man
(G) Lord, I was (F) born a ramblin' (G) man
