

Sundown

(Written and recorded by Gordon Lightfoot, 1973.)

(C) I can see her lyin' back in her satin dress
In a (G7) room where you do what you (C) don't confess.
Sundown, you (F) better take care
If I (Bb) find you been creepin' round (C) my back stairs.
Sundown, you (F) better take care
If I (Bb) find you been creepin' round (C) my back stairs.

(C) She's been lookin' like a queen in a sailor's dream
And she (G7) don't always say what she (C) really means.
Sometimes I (F) think it's a shame
When I (Bb) get feelin' better when I'm (C) feelin' no pain.
Sometimes I (F) think it's a shame
When I (Bb) get feelin' better when I'm (C) feelin' no pain.

(C) I can picture every move that a man could make;
Gettin' (G7) lost in her lovin' is your (C) first mistake.
Sundown, you (F) better take care
If I (Bb) find you been creepin' round (C) my back stairs.
Sometimes I (F) think it's a sin
When I (Bb) feel like I'm winnin' when I'm (C) losin' again.

(C) I can see her lookin' fast in her faded jeans;
She's a (G7) hard lovin' woman, got me (C) feelin' mean.
Sometimes I (F) think it's a shame
When I (Bb) get feelin' better when I'm (C) feelin' no pain.
Sundown, you (F) better take care
If I (Bb) find you been creepin' round (C) my back stairs.
Sundown you (F) better take care
If I (Bb) find you been creepin' round (C) my back stairs.
Sometimes I (F) think it's a sin
When I (Bb) feel like I'm winnin' when I'm (C) losin' again.
