

Touch of Grey

(Written by Jerry Garcia and Robert Hunter, recorded by the Grateful Dead, 1987.)

(C) Must be getting (G) early (C), (F) clocks are running (Bb) late. (F)
(G) Paint by number morning (C) sky, (F) looks so phony
(C) Dawn is breaking (G) every(C)where,
 (F) Light a candle, (Bb) curse the (F) glare
(G) Draw the curtains I don't (C) care 'cause (F) it's all right
 (G) I (C) will get (F) by, (G) I (C) will get (F) by,
 (G) I (C) will get (Bb) by, (F) (G) I will sur(F)vive
(C) I see you've got your (G) list out(C), (F)say your piece and (Bb)get out (F)
(G) Yes I get the gist of (C) it but (F) it's all right
(C) Sorry that you (G)feel that (C)way, (F)The only thing there (Bb)is to (F)say
(G) Every silver lining's (C) got a (F) touch of grey.

(chorus)

(Dm) It's a (D) lesson to (G) me
The (Dm) Ables and the (D) Bakers and the (G) C's
(Em) The AB(B7)C's (A7) we all must (D) face
(Dm) And try to (D) keep a little (G) grace

(solo: verse + chorus chords)

(Dm) It's a (D) lesson to (G) me
The (Dm) deltas and the (D) east and the (G) freeze
(Em) The AB(B7)C's (A7) we all think (D) of
(Dm) Try to (D) give a little (G) love.

(C) I know the rent is (G) in ar(C)rears
 (F) The dog has not been (Bb) fed in (F) years
(G) It's even worse than it ap(C)pears but (F) it's all right.
(C) Cows giving (G) kero(C)sene (F) kid can't read at (Bb) seven(F)teen
(G) The words he knows are all ob(C)scene but (F) it's all right

(chorus)

(C) The shoe is on the (G) hand it (C) fits
 (F) There's really nothing (Bb) much to (F) it
(G) Whistle through your teeth and (C) spit cause (F) it's all right.
(C) Oh well a (G) touch of (C) grey (F) kind of suits you (Bb) any(F)way.
(G) That was all I had to (C) say (F) It's all right.

(chorus) (chorus with "We")
