

You're Gonna Make Me Lonesome When You Go

(Written and recorded by Bob Dylan, 1974.)

(G)(Bm)(C)(G)(D)(G)

(G) I've seen love go (Bm) by my door, it's (C) never been this close before

(G) Never been so (Bm) easy or so (D) slow

(G) Been shooting in the (Bm) dark too long

When (C) somethin's not right it's wrong

(G) You're gonna make me (D) lonesome when you (G) go

(G) Dragon clouds so (Bm) high above, I've (C) only known careless love

(G) It's always (Bm) hit me from be(D)low

(G) This time around it's (Bm) more correct, (C) right on target, so direct

(G) You're gonna make me (D) lonesome when you (G) go

(G) Purple clover, (Bm) Queen Anne's Lace, (C) Crimson hair across your face

(G) You could make me (Bm) cry if you don't (D) know

(G) Can't remember what I was (Bm) thinkin' of

You (C) might be spoilin' me too much, love

(G) You're gonna make me (D) lonesome when you (G) go

(D) Flowers on the hillside, bloomin' (G) crazy,

(D) Crickets talkin' back and forth in (G) rhyme

(A7) Blue river runnin' slow and lazy

(D7sus4) I could stay with you forever and (D7) never realize the time

(G) Situations have (Bm) ended sad, (C) relationships have all been bad

(G) Mine have been like (Bm) Verlaine's and Rim(D)baud

But (G) there's no way I (Bm) can compare, (C) all those scenes to this affair

(G) You're gonna make me (D) lonesome when you (G) go

(D) Yer gonna make me wonder what I'm (G) doin'

(D) Stayin' far behind without (G) you

(A7) You're gonna make me wonder what I'm sayin'

(D7sus4) You're gonna make me give myself a (D7) good talkin' to

(G) I'll look for you in old (Bm) Honolulu, (C) San Francisco, Ashtabula

(G) You're gonna have to (Bm) leave me now, I (D) know

But I'll (G) see you in the (Bm) sky above

In the (C) tall grass, in the ones I love

(G) You're gonna make me (D) lonesome when you (G) go

(G) You're gonna make me (D) lonesome when you (G) go
